

Warranty & Returns

I acknowledge that when returning this item, I am responsible for the packaging to prevent damages to the item during transit. I will ensure that all correct paperwork is with the return item so Outback Equipment may process the return correctly and in a timely manner. If the item/s are returned damaged or incomplete, then a restocking and processing fee may be deducted from my order. The restocking and processing fee will be an amount determined by Outback Equipment relevant to the severity of damage caused by the improper packaging or incomplete item/s returned to Outback Equipment. I understand that I am responsible for the returning item/s up until they are delivered and received by Outback Equipment to process, and that Shipping insurance is encouraged as items that are lost or damaged upon return will not be Outback Equipment's responsibility
